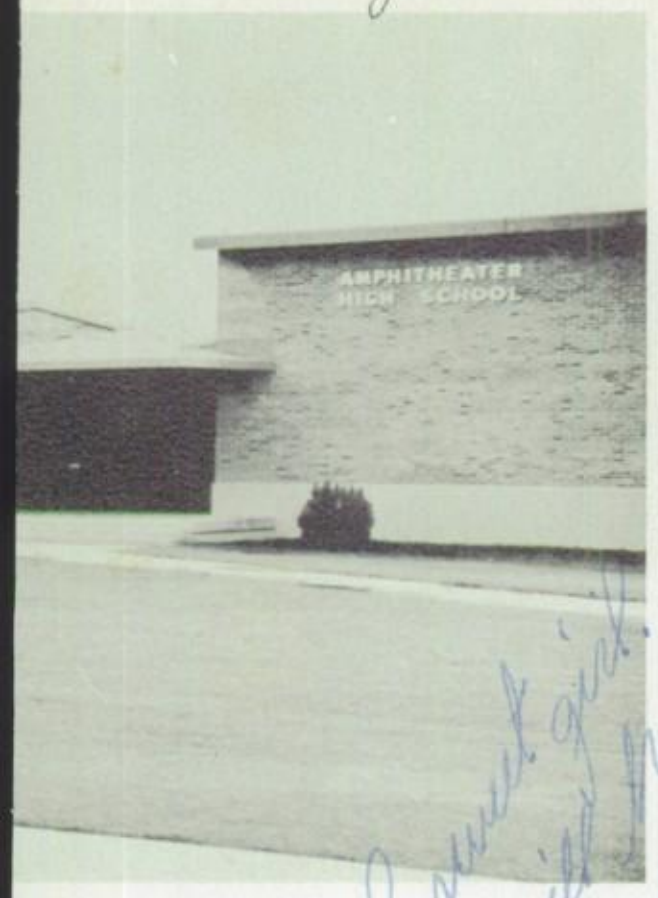
Foreward



This is the age of change — from the Wright brothers' airplane to satallites and rockets aimed for the moon; from the laboring man to the complex machine; from a country involved with its own problems to a nation concerned with the troubles of the world; from a day of routine existence to the present time of challenging ideas in a changing world.

Our school too is a part of this change — from a small rural school to a modern school plant with 1500 students; from a senior class of 40 to a graduating class of 319; from a little-known country school to one that has earned, with pride, a place of honor among the other recognized high schools of our state.

We, of the Annual Staff, also felt this trend of change, and so we made some changes in the 1962 annual. The first change was to return to the traditional green and white cover. Other changes are noticeable in style, format and theme.

As you leaf through this yearbook, we hope it will serve as a bridge from fond memories of our years together to important goals of tomorrow as we have tried to capture and preserve in these pages our "School Life."

To a real sweet girl.
I hope we will have
fun in advanced girls
next year. I'm sure you are. We will always be friends.
Rita Sparr

Lots of luck and stay as nice as you are.
John (Dyer)

Barbara,
You're a real doll and it's been loads of fun knowin'
ya this last couple years.
Or rather 4 or five years.
Always,
Jeanne

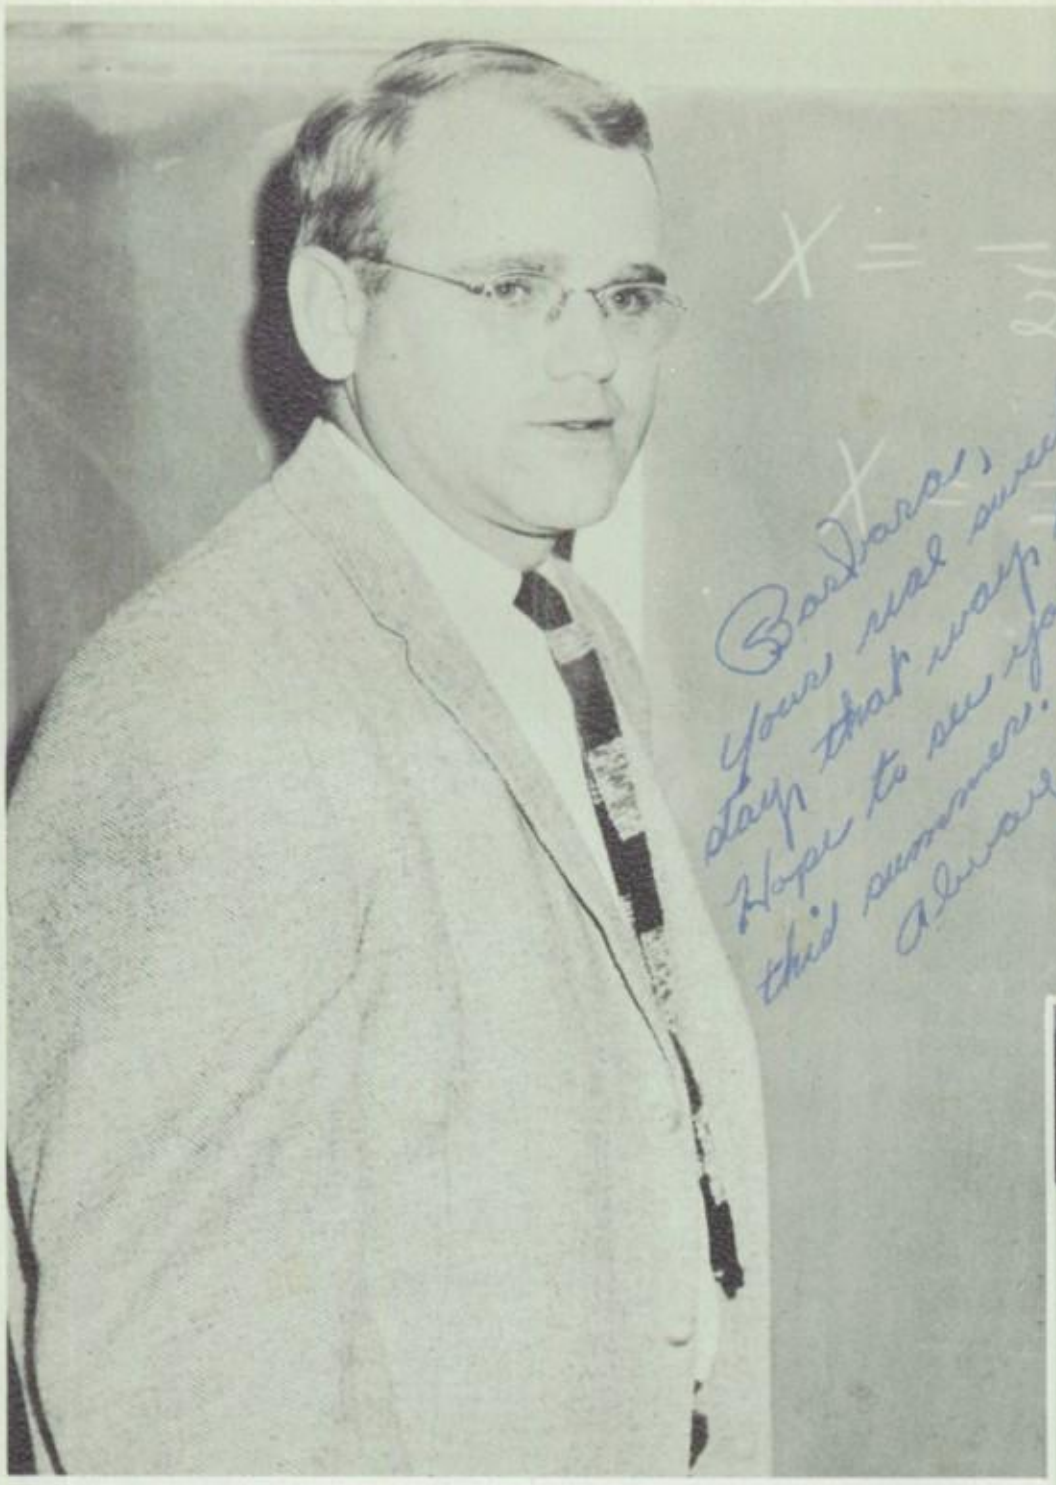
Mr. Krans Chosen Class Favorite



The class of 1962 has chosen for their favorite teacher, a person who has given unselfishly of his time and effort to help his students.

This favorite teacher has been instructing Amphites since 1952 in such subjects as algebra, plane and solid geometry, and trigonometry and is also a senior class sponsor. He finds Amphi students cooperative and enjoyable to work with and they find him praiseworthy and pleasant.

In appreciation for the many years of service to this year's seniors and those students in the past, the annual staff takes great pride and pleasure in dedicating the 1962 PANTHER TRAILS to Mr. Robert Krans.

Well, we have really moved around this year haven't we? With all of these boys (ha!) chasing us, you think we would run out of breath, don't you? (excuse my punctuation + spelling + don't ever let Mrs Pennington see this. She would change all of my grades to 5's) (you too?!) We've had a real neat time + I hope we have a few classes together next year. I hope you have a real neat summer. Good luck always.
Stay just as you are.

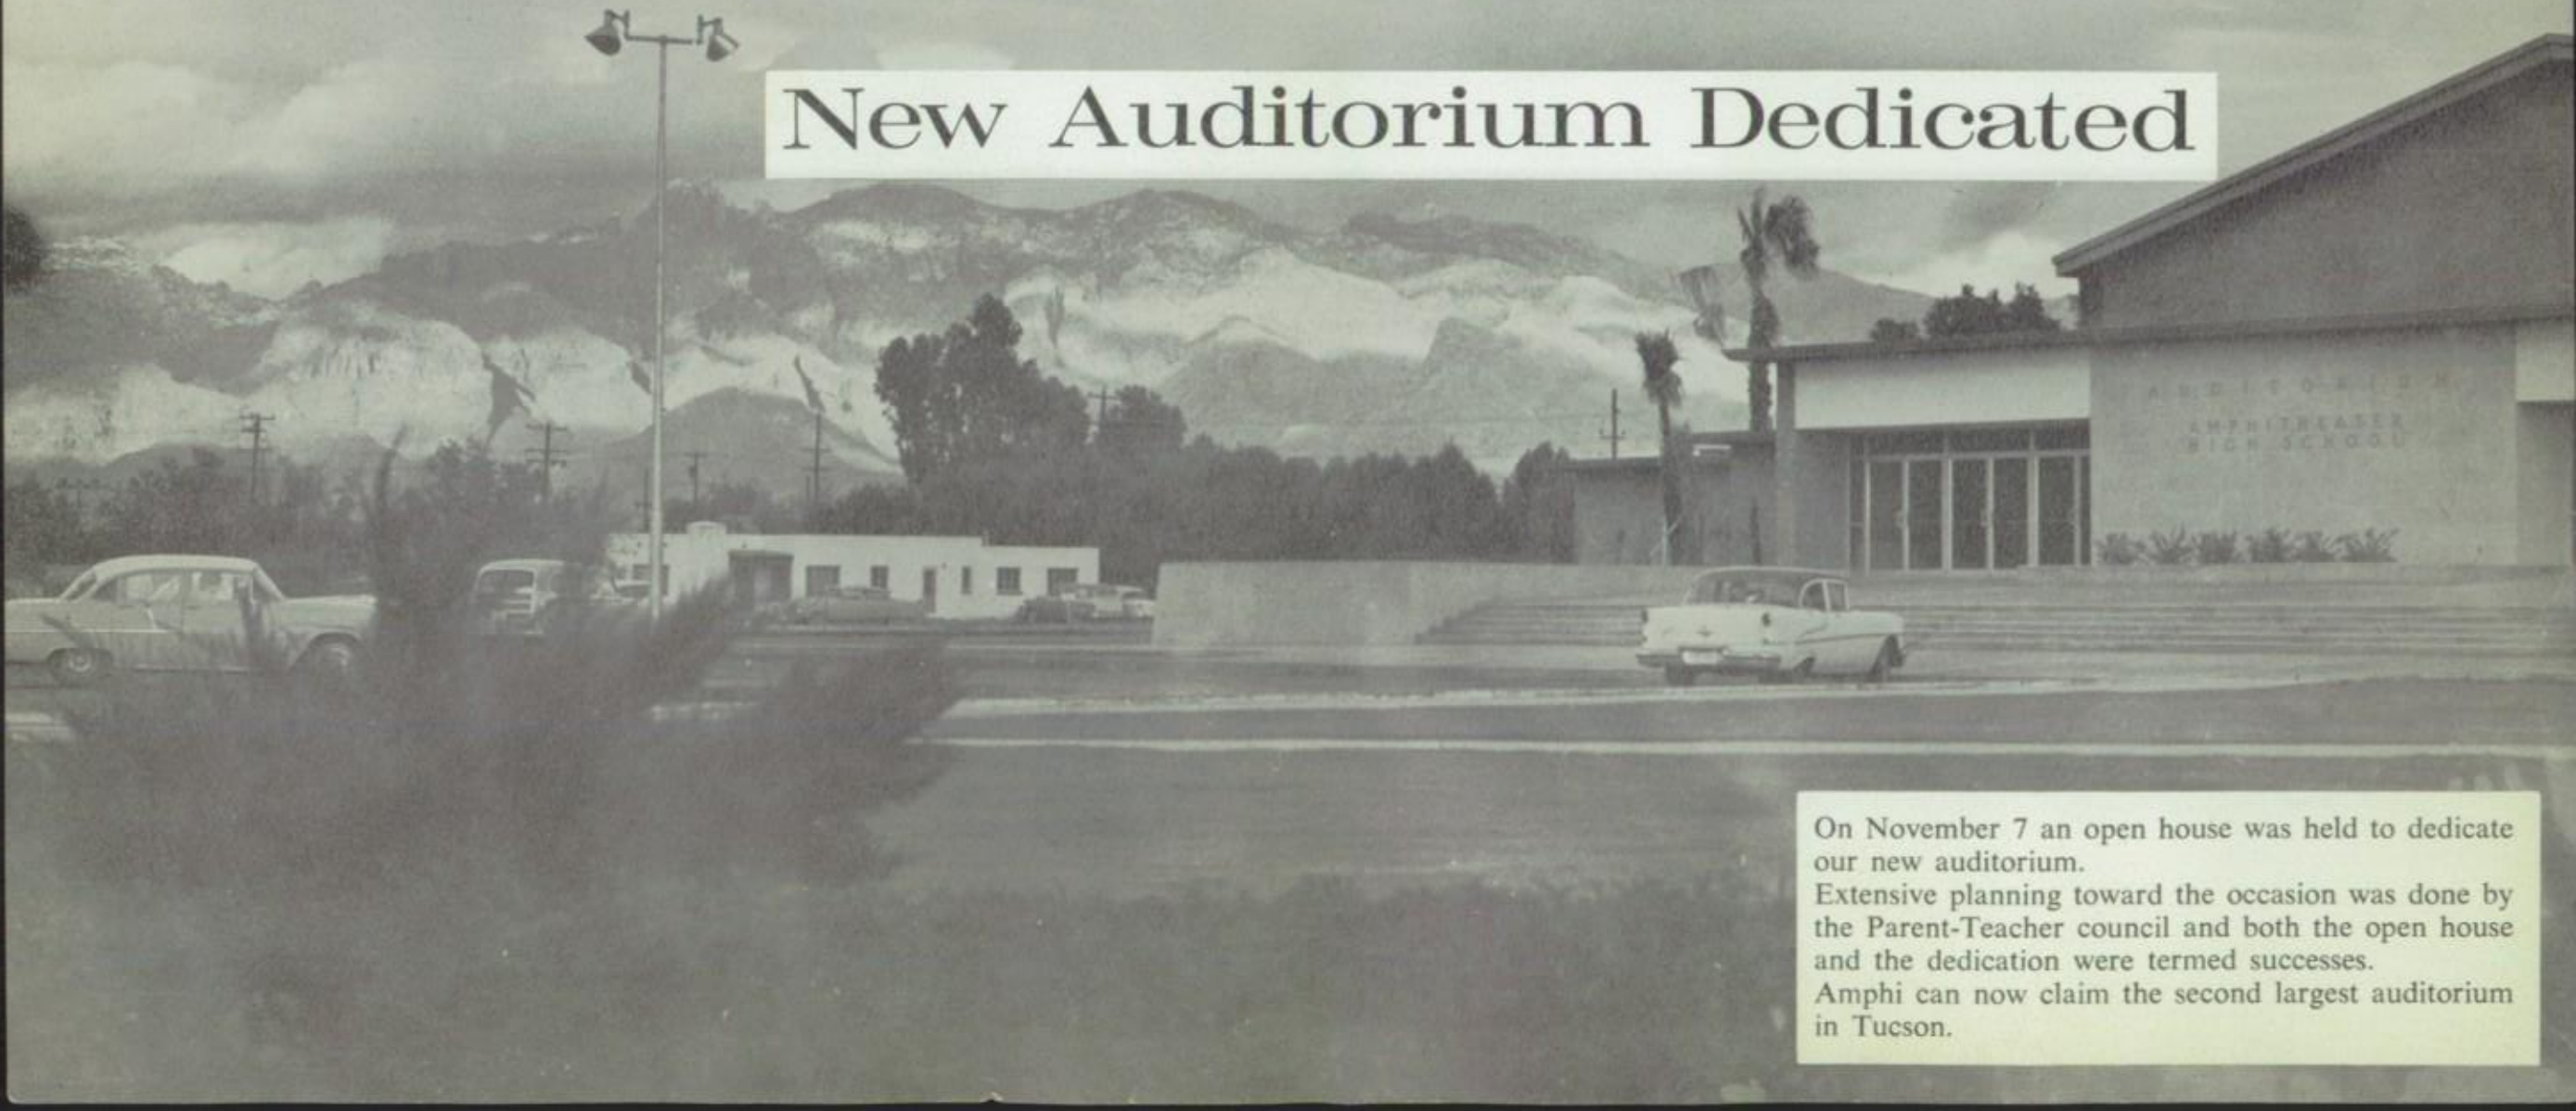
New Auditorium Dedicated



On November 7 an open house was held to dedicate our new auditorium.
Extensive planning toward the occasion was done by the Parent-Teacher council and both the open house and the dedication were termed successes.
Amphi can now claim the second largest auditorium in Tucson.

Activities Round-out Schedule

Any Amphi Student can tell you that school wouldn't be the same without the dances, assemblies, and crowded halls.

These familiar scenes will bring back many memories. Remember the after-game dances, cold mornings, stuffy halls, and the dayas when we had a telephone?

Since this annual has a "school life" theme, this page is dedicated to you, the students.

Kay Swenson And John Leiber

Amphi's Best Dressed

Fads In

Craig Dotson is wearing a green and black sweater, with Sally Coxey wearing a bright red jersey sheath. Clark Root and Janet Matthew look as if they are discussing something besides clothes! Janet has on a red and green plaid dress edged with rick rack and buttons.

Jim Hines, Kathie Harrington, Sherril Riggs, and Spencer Swingle are wearing outfits that are worn to school as well as to school dances.

Barbara Mann and Linda Lohman are both wearing dresses with sweaters over their shoulders. Bob Nichols is wearing a green sweater and Steve Campbell is wearing a long-sleeved sports shirt.

Fashions

Here, Bill Coward and Jim Wright wear cardigan sweaters, which are very popular this year. Vests are also a hit this year as Vicky Brazeal illustrates. Joyce Cooper has on a gray wool dress with a gored skirt, an up and coming fashion trend.

Joanne Schulte models a sheath dress with decorative ruffles down the front. Karl Sterlachini and Tom Peck wear patterned sport shirts that are seen often on the campus. Jane DeMinor has on a cute plaid jacket and brown skirt.

George Jackson, Eddy Anderson, and Terry Huff are wearing a favorite of Amphi boys, a letterman's jacket and levis. Jane Craven and Linda Blakely both have on fall outfits. cotton dress and casual sweaters.

HAIL AMPHITHEATER

To your call once more we rally,
Amphitheater, hear our praise;
Where the Catalinas raise their heads
With joy our voices ring.
From the skies in swelling echoes
Come the cheers that tell the tale
Of your victories and your heroes
Amphitheater High, all hail!
Hail, Amphitheater High,
All hail to the green and white,
Hail, Amphitheater High!
Our friendship, may she never lack —
Ever grateful, ever true —
Thus we raise our song anew
Of the days we spent with you,
Our Amphitheater High!

Although Amphi's record of 2-7-1 didn't give Panther rooters much to cheer about, the Panther gridders provided many thrills for the fans throughout the season.

Led by the running of all-state halfback George Jackson, the triple-threat plays of Glenn Ezell and defensive talents of Joe Frost, the Panthers won games against Yuma and Catalina, were held to a tie by Flowing Wells and nearly upset several other highly ranked teams.

The picture below, is of a class playing girls' basketball. Note the ball in mid air. Incidentally, the shot was missed.

Baccalaureate and graduation services capped four years of outstanding participation in all school activities by the members of the senior class.

Senior Day at the U. of A. was attended by many members of the class. The biggest thrill of the day was the crowning of their Senior Princess, Salley Coxey, as the first attendant.

December 19 was the date of the highlight of the Senior year — the traditional Senior Christmas Party.

Another highlight was the crowning of Gerry Lybeck as the Most Eligible Bachelor.

Other seniors were chosen as royalty during the year, Kathy Harrington and George Jackson reigned as queen and king of A-Day. Sally Coxey served as senior attendant. Linda Blakely was chosen Rodeo Queen and the senior attendant was Jane Craven.

April and May brought many plans for a senior picnic and a booth at the carnival.

Guiding the seniors in their many ventures were Mrs. Cooper, advisor; Skip Dotson, president; Nancy Adair, vice-president; Julia de Azevedo, secretary; Margaret Ramsey, treasurer; and Linda Blakely and Shirley Ferguson, senior representative.

Junior Class Officers

Again a busy class, the juniors set about raising money for their main project, the Junior-Senior Prom.

Twirp Week was held in February. The activities during the week included a movie on Monday, which was "Three Coins In A Fountain." On Wednesday there was a talent show. Finishing out the week with a dance on Friday after the Rincon game. The dance which was usually a sock hop was changed to a "hat hop." Prizes were given for the best talent and also at the dance for the "neatest" hat. The Most Eligible Bachelor contest was an important part of the week. Steve Campbell was the Junior nominee for the Most Eligible Bachelor.

Delegates for Girls' and Boys' State were chosen, and class rings were ordered.

Jeri Miller was chosen A-Day attendant. The F.F.A. Chapter Sweetheart candidates were Sammie Collins, Patsy Hand, Kit Henry. The honor of Rodeo attendant went to Jeri Miller.

The officers behind the activities were Jim Hines, president; Sammie Collins, vice president; Mary Giltner, treasurer; Shirley Dugan, secretary; Karen Monrad, Jerri Miller, representatives.

Freshmen Class Officers

The graduating class of 1965 began its first year at Amphitheater with the usual confusion that is connected with every new group of freshmen. It didn't take long for their apprehension of high school life to wear off and all eagerly joined in to take an active part in Amphi's curriculum. But numerous studies didn't seem to keep this class from participating in many extra-curricular activities.

Getting into the holiday spirit, "Winter Wonderland" was chosen as the theme for their Christmas dance. The arrival of spring set the scene for another freshman sponsored activity on April 13. Freshman cheerleaders, Barbara Bullington, Evelyn Irwin and Suzanne Leonard, contributed to the pep and spirit displayed by the Freshmen.

Class members proudly chose Barbara Bullington as their A-Day Attendant, Anne Corke for Rodeo Attendant, and Jim Parker as the Freshman candidate in the annual "Most Eligible Bachelor" contest. Freshman class officers were Jerry Wood, President; Anne Corke, Vice President; Ronald McLearen, Secretary; Donna Fletcher, Treasurer; and Jean Ann Huff and Suzanne Leonard as Representatives.

Their first year of high school at Amphitheater has passed, leaving behind many memories, and the class of 1965 is anticipating the next three.
